

The journey

As I travel on life's winding road
Where it takes me I don't really know
Questions now just fill my mind
Answers seem so very hard to find

Will I meet a sinner or a sage
Will I find a castle or a cage
Turning back won't help me now
I need help to get me there somehow

Can it be I see the journey's end
Just a stable full of new found friends
Now I feel peace in my soul
I can rest I feel like I'm at home
